16/4 LILLIAN STREET, Redbank Plains

$174,000

This two storey town house is only a short walk to the Redbank Plains Shopping Centre with supermarket, chemist and several specialty and food stores plus the renowned Pig & Whistle pub. Close by is also the bus stop, which makes this complex perfectly located.

Having just been painted inside and with new carpet, this property would be great as investment, or for the couple looking for their first property.

The large open plan living & dining area is tiled for your convenience and features a ceiling fan.

The main bedroom has a balcony to allow the cooling breezes in a night and both of the bedrooms have fans.

You have your own private rear courtyard which is low maintenance and ideal for those lazy Sunday mornings.

There are screens throughout, with security doors front and back. In addition the carport also has a lock up front roller door.

The complex also features a great sized pool for those times you just need to cool down in a
