Outstanding Quality

Sold

Built by one of Helensburgh's best builders, this incredible brand new duplex is simply the best. From the engineered floating floor and acoustic underlay through to the extra wall and ceiling insulation, your new home has it all. Two of the gorgeous bedrooms with built-in robes are located on the main level with the elegant well appointed bathroom. Walk up the Victorian Ash staircase to the light filled air conditioned open plan living room. Stone benchtops, top class appliances and walk-in pantry showcase the stunning, well designed kitchen, centrepiece of the beautiful living area. Marvel at the superb outlook through glass stacker doors which open onto the impressive covered, spotted gum deck where you can entertain or just relax with bush views in the distance.

The main bedroom boasts walk-thru robe to another amazing bathroom with loured windows, huge shower head and double basins. Hide away and unwind in the private sunny paved and grassed courtyard with pretty garden surrounds and irrigation in place to make life easy. Single garage, carport and located in a well sought after area close to schools, shops and amenities. Quality like this is rare so don't delay your inspection.
