62 Station Road, Otford

Sold for $1,130,000 (Jun 14, 2019)

Lovingly maintained with attention to detail, this split level cedar home with colourbond roof is ready to welcome its new family. Mostly refurbished with skylights and brushbox timber flooring throughout, built-in robes in all bedrooms and showcasing sleek plantation shutters. Both the stunning main bathroom and ensuite are brand new with built-in shower niche. Tiled to the ceiling, the main bathroom has a separate shower and gorgeous stand-alone oval bathtub. The lower section of this beautiful home comprises an open plan living room with reverse cycle air conditioning and light filled timber kitchen with pantry and plenty of bench space.

Step out through glass sliding doors to the massive, covered timber deck where you can entertain to your heart's content. Meander through the gardens from one yard to another, or sit and contemplate in your private cabana just how lucky you are to own this stunning piece of paradise. Also features push button light switches, 3rd WC in the updated laundry, solar panels, plenty of storage and huge double garaging with workbench and shelving, all on a 974m2 gently sloping block. A short walk to the train station with Sydney CBD just an hour away. Only minutes to the Royal National Park, magnificent outlook at Bald Hill, walking tracks, cafes and patrolled Stanwell Park beach. Be quick to secure your new home in this much sought after cul-de-sac.
