22 Freeman, Kingaroy

$200,000

Why buy land to build your dream home on when all you can see is your neighbour.

This 1435 metre square property has the most amazing views.

On one of the most prestigious streets overlooking town and great views to the bunya's.

With underground power there is no impediments to the views. A reserve at the rear of the property gives you privacy and the country feel in the middle of town.

If you are looking for a special block of land to build your home I can assure you then inspecting this property is a must.

From the 1st of January 2010 a copy of the Sustainability Declaration for this property will be available from the Agent. For more information on the requirements for a Sustainability Declaration visit www.sustainabilityreports.com.au
