

Main Street Development site

49 Macrossan Street, Port Douglas

$2,000,000

One of the last remaining development sites in the main street of Port Douglas. The site was earmarked for a new development called Laughing Water however unfortunately due to the Covid 19 pandemic and the current owners living overseas they have decided not to proceed and sell the vacant site instead. There is an approved DA for 7 residential apartments and 3 shops. The area is 1012m² and currently has a small two bedroom house on it.
