

Renovate And Be Rewarded !

29 Raglan Street, Wallsend

Sold for $380,000 (Dec 12, 2019)

Calling all renovators and handymen! Situated in the popular suburb Wallsend, this solid and well built, 3-bedroom home is screaming for a makeover. So much potential lies here for someone with a little imagination wanting to create something special.

The floorplan holds so many possibilities, with three spacious bedrooms, the main with a ceiling fan. The large living space is complete with air conditioning. Toilet is separate to the bathroom for convenience and the kitchen is impressive in size. Also featuring an enclosed sunroom/extra living space and internal laundry.

Located in a priceless position, Wallsend being just a short trip into Newcastle CBD and its beautiful beaches. Close to Stockland Jesmond shopping centre, a local pharmacy, doctors, parks, the University of Newcastle, public transport and with access to the freeway nearby. The property is also within the local school catchments, Wallsend Public School, Callaghan College Jesmond and the Wallsend Campus.

With a little TLC this property would make a perfect first home or investment.
