13 Hydrangea Avenue, Parkes

Sold

There's no doubt about it, this property has style written all over it. A stylish contemporary feel with an emphasis on practical daily living.

Four bedrooms including generous size master bedroom with ensuite and walk-in-robe. There are plenty of living space options with a separate lounge or media room and casual family living area off a kitchen that features new stone bench tops modern appliances.

The backyard nearly turfed and ready for you to move in and enjoy, while the covered entertaining space will get plenty of use. Other features include ducted evaporative cooling, gas heating, double garage with internal access all in a family friendly location. Well worth taking the time to view at a very attractive price due to house only being six (6) months old.
