Suburb Profile – Croydon, 2132:

Croydon is where culinary diversity meets great amenity, and retail meccas entwine with great cafe-style dining. Located just 9km from the Sydney CBD, it's an easy drive or train ride into work, with both Croydon and Ashfield stations within walking distance. Croydon Village is dotted with everyday conveniences, as well as great coffee shops and cosy dining spaces. Westfield Burwood just 10 minutes away, as is its bustling main street lined with endless casual dining options, and neighbouring Ashfield is renowned for its authentic culinary institutions. A true urban playground, Croydon is also home to many open green spaces and parklands, as well as sporting facilities like the Ashfield Aquatic Centre and Croydon Tennis Centre.
