18 Voyager Crescent, Bawley Point

Sold for $740,000 (Mar 16, 2020)

Tucked away in a quiet street, this one acre property offers space for a family to make the most of the laid back coastal lifestyle. The three bedroom home has sprawling living areas, plus a large rumpus room, ideal for use as self-contained guest accommodation. Recent renovations include a new kitchen with stone bench tops and appliances, new windows and solar power. The home features high ceilings and large windows to catch the summer breeze and a slow combustion fireplace plus gas heating to keep the family toasty and warm in winter. Relax on the covered front verandah that stretches the length of the house or gather with friends on the large rear entertaining deck that overlooks the huge level yard. With a double garage, plus three garden sheds, there's plenty of storage space for the toys. It's just a short stroll to your choice of great surf beaches and walk through the back gate to the village shops.

If you're looking for an affordable lifestyle property or weekend retreat where the kids can run around and with room for chooks and vegie garden, this property ticks all the boxes.
