Set on 10 panoramic acres with expansive rural views this home has been meticulously renovated throughout. The northerly facing open plan living area captures the warm winter sun and offers a plethora of living space. The kitchen has the latest stainless steel appliances with a full wall of sleek cupboards, soft close drawers and a large breakfast bar. All four bedrooms feature built-in wardrobes with a stylish ensuite off the master bedroom. Both bathrooms have floor to ceiling tiles in neutral tones, a theme that is continued throughout the home. All seasons are covered with split system air conditioning unit plus the ambience of slow combustion heating. An alfresco area embraces the north sun and is a delightful space to relax and enjoy the secluded sparkling 12 metre salt water pool. There is a 112,500 litre underground fresh water tank providing plenty of water. The land is a blank canvas with a dam, and a bore that pumps to a 22,500 litre poly tank which irrigates the fruit trees. This easy to manage, versatile property in a tranquil setting with crimson country sunsets awaits your inspection.
